

Class 3A: Sharing Your Faith Without
Sounding Offensive - part 2

- The Two Main Questions always are:
- What do you mean by that?
  - How did you come to that conclusion?

Decide which topics come next: Ask questions about:

- A: After-life. “What do you believe about the afterlife?”
- B: Bible. “Have you ever read any of the Bible?”
- C: Christ. “Who do you think Jesus Christ is?”

But what is next?

Putting the Whole System Together

Putting the Whole System Together:

- 1). Offer a Gospel Booklet – Ask, “Where are you with spiritual things?” OR
Can I pray for you? Pray for healing, etc. Then ask, “Where are you with spiritual things?”

Their response: I’m a Muslim, I’m a Catholic, I’m a Christian, etc.

- 2). What do you mean by that?
How did you come to that conclusion?
What do you mean by... (look for key words – Muslim, Catholic, Christian, etc.)

- 3). Start a New Topic: “Let me ask you a question. What are your beliefs about... (A, B, or C)?
A). The Afterlife. B). Bible. C). Christ.

Their response... ”Well I think...”

- 4). Back to the Top: What do you mean by that? How did you come to that conclusion? (regarding their response to question 3).

- 5). After 5 to 10 minutes, get to the Gospel: “Do You Think You Are Good Enough to Get to Heaven?”
